Telegrams from Paris received this afternoon, and the panic in that market continues; also the run on the Comptoir d'Escompte bank.

This morning the market was ruled very weak. It may not be generally known that the National Government has taken with it the last of the gold reserves which were held in deposit by the Comptoir d'Es-compte as the Minister of Hacienda, Don Rafael Varona, was unwilling that the Argentine Government should appear on the stage as a creditor of the Comptoir. The market certainly approved of the action of the Minister in this business, and so early has the change been made without even the intervention of a broker that in the open market the price of the gold has risen to the level of the fact that France has been very recently and the rate on Paris and Antwerp has fallen to 2 1/2 per cent.

Mr. J. A. Garcia has applied for the registration of the statutes of the "Nuevos
